ORIENT-INSPIRED JEWELS
SET WITH PEARLS AND JADE
COMBINE THE BEST OF
EAST AND WEST

1. ALESSIO BOSCHI: White diamonds, pink sapphires, tsavorites and green tourmaline are set in this magnificent ring inspired by the lotus.
2. FEILIU: This bespoke necklace contains a rare fine quality 103ct tanzanite. A commission for one of the designer's private customers in China, it was recently on display in London.
3. DAVID MARSHALL LONDON: Intricate carved white jade is the centrepiece of these earrings, with delicate white diamonds and gold.
4. MICHELLE ONG: One of the stars of the Masterpiece London show, this necklace is set with multiple shades of jade beads teamed with white and brown diamonds, purple sapphires and garnet, in white gold and titanium.
5. YOKO LONDON: These dramatic lattice-like earrings are inspired by Asian coral reefs and set black Tahitian pearls in blackened gold, accented with diamonds.
6. CARLA AMORIM: A dramatic pairing of opals and black diamonds in fan-shaped drops.
